SB 72 Engrossed

DIGEST
2018 Regular Session

Martiny

Present law provides relative to persons suffering from mental illness or disorders.

Present law provides procedures when executing an order for protective custody and the use of forced entry when executing a protective order. Further provides for civil immunity for law enforcement agencies when executing an order of protective custody.

Proposed law provides that a coroner or his staff may apply to the court for an order of protective custody that allows law enforcement to use forced entry to gain access into premises when executing an order of protective custody.

Proposed law further provides for accompanying documents for an order for protective custody and provides for both oral and telephonic orders of protections under exceptional circumstances.

Proposed law further provides for immunity from civil liability to law enforcement agencies and its officers for acts done in good faith while executing an order of protective custody. Further provides certain exceptions for serious bodily injury or wrongful death, and for acts to third parties.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
