Bouie

Abstract: Defines a "person who is released from incarceration " in reference to ex-offender provisional licenses.

Present law requires the Dept of Public Safety and Corrections, office of motor vehicles, to issue a provisional class "E" driver's license to a person who is released from incarceration after serving a minimum of one year and whose class "E" driver's license will be or is suspended, revoked, or cancelled for any reason upon his release.

Proposed law specifies that a "person who is released from incarceration" includes, but is not limited to, an individual who is housed in a federal residential reentry management center, also known as a halfway house.
