12 WHEREAS, the church quickly became a refuge for the hopeless, the addicted, and

1 WHEREAS, prior to coming to Bossier City, Jerry Dean ministered as an evangelist
2 and pastor before accepting a position in St. Louis, Missouri, as the General Youth Secretary
3 of the United Pentecostal Church International; and

5 apostolic ministry identified for The Pentecostals the responsibility of supporting 6 missionaries around the world and his leadership has resulted in more that a half a million 7 dollars collected annually for missions alone; and

8 WHEREAS, in 1995, under the leadership of Pastors Jerry and Gina Dean, the 9 church moved to a new property in North Bossier City, where the congregation was afforded 10 more room for growth; and

11 WHEREAS, since the relocation, the church has completed a Family Life Center in 12 2003, and a two hundred eighty-seat student center for their current students youth ministry,

20 and countless other services in their continuing ministry in the Northwestern Louisiana 21 region; and

30 commitment to demonstrating the love of Christ has been consistent over three decades of

1 service and leadership; and

2 WHEREAS, in an age in which those in the ministry have never been under closer 3 scrutiny nor held to a higher standard by the public, Pastors Jerry and Gina Dean have stood 4 for three decades at The Pentecostals of Bossier City as examples of what the ministry of 5 God's word is meant to be: selfless, humble, passionate, prayerful, and committed; and

6 WHEREAS, on April 13 through 15, 2018, Pastors Jerry and Gina Dean and their
