(KEYWORD, SUMMARY, AND DIGEST as amended by Senate committee amendments)

AMUSEMENTS/SPORTS: Provides relative to the regulation of professional wrestling

DIGEST

Proposed law provides that a wrestling promoter who, during the calendar year his license is granted, promotes exclusively events authorized by proposed law, shall not be required by the commission to furnish a bond.

Proposed law provides conditions which must be met in order for a professional wrestling event to be in compliance with proposed law. The requirements are as follows:

- (1) The promoter and all the participants are licensed pursuant to present law.
- (2) The venue for the event is either a primary or secondary school gymnasium or has a capacity of four hundred persons or fewer as certified by the state fire marshal.
- (3) There is present at each such event, from the start of the event until the finish of the event, an individual of the full age of majority, who is not a participant in the event, who has documented current certification in Infant/Child/Adult CPR.
- (4) The promoter secures a commercial liability policy for a minimum of one hundred thousand dollars or provides proof to the secretary of the commission that the venue provides a liability policy in that amount, which policy shall be in full force and effect at the time of the event.
- (5) All applicable provisions of present and proposed law and the rules and regulations for the commission are observed and obeyed during the event.
- (6) The promoter provides written notice to the secretary of the commission no less than fifteen days prior to the event which certifies the compliance with proposed law and includes verifying documents.

Proposed law provides that when the requirements enumerated in proposed law are met, the provisions of present law shall not apply to that professional wrestling event.

Proposed law provides a list of conditions which shall apply to a wrestling event conducted pursuant to proposed law as follows:

- (1) The promoter shall not be required by the commission to pay any show date reservation fee nor shall any fee be charged for submission of the written notice required by proposed law.
- (2) A promoter shall not be required by the commission to purchase health insurance for the event.
- (3) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the commission shall not be required to have any representative present at the event.
- (4) The promoter shall at all times be responsible at the event for compliance with the applicable provisions of present and proposed law and the rules and regulations of the commission.

- (5) The promoter shall, within the fifteen days following the event, report in writing the results of each event.

Proposed law provides that the commission, the individual members of the commission, and the state of Louisiana shall not be liable for damages in any civil action for any event which is promoted pursuant to proposed law. This immunity shall not be extended to damages caused by gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct.

(Amends R.S. 4:83; Adds R.S. 4:61(G) and 65(A)(4))
