EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law adds language to clarify that the use of the supervision fees paid by individuals released on probation or parole may be used for the salaries for probation and parole officers. Currently, supervision fee revenues provide for the general operations of the probation and parole function of Corrections Services.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
