

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 564 (SB 325)

2018 Regular Session

Milkovich

New law provides that in addition to any remedy available through certain penalty provisions in prior law, the Louisiana Department of Health may suspend or revoke the license of an outpatient abortion facility for systematically, intentionally, or deliberately falsifying or destroying patient files or records required by prior law or completing in advance of an appointment with a woman seeking an abortion any portion of the patient records or forms required by prior law.

Effective August 1, 2018.
