

1 WHEREAS, various authorities have suggested the need for Louisiana to address a 2 number of policy areas that would require constitutional change, including such matters as 3 the state's tax structure and budgetary practices, dedication of state revenues and the 10 critical needs, undertaking an in-depth discussion of reform concepts, crafting provisions 11 that allow for flexibility and innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the present 12 and the future, and challenging Louisiana's voters to accept constructive change; and 14 undertake appropriate study and analysis to enable effective decisions concerning details of
