DIGEST

SB 80 Original

2020 Regular Session

Carter

Present law (R.S. 44:1) provides for definition of public records and specifically defines certain security data as "not a public record".

Present law (R.S. 44:3.1) provides that disclosure of certain records pertaining to security against terrorist-related activities shall not be required.

Present law (R.S. 44:4(4)) provides for the applicability of public records pertaining to residential building permits on file in the office of a regulatory agency or official.

Proposed law retains present law and extends applicability to public school buildings and facilities.

Proposed law grants exemptions from the public records law for blueprints, floor plans, and other renderings of the interior of a public school building or facility.

Proposed law further grants exemptions from the public records law for school crisis and management plans.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.

(Amends 44:3.1 and 4(40); adds R.S. 17:410.1 and R.S. 44:1(A)(2)(c))
