Abstract: Provides relative to the submission of certified records in reply memorandum.

Present law does not provide for certified records received through subpoena to be filed in support of or opposition to motions for summary judgment.

Proposed law authorizes certified records received through subpoena to be filed in support of or opposition to motions for summary judgment.

Present law provides that no additional documents may be filed with a reply memorandum.

Proposed law provides that a reply memorandum may include a complete certified copy of a deposition that was partially produced in the opposition memorandum and documents filed to rebut arguments made in the opposition memorandum.

(Amends C.C.P. Arts. 966(A)(4), (B)(3), and (D)(2))
