Repeals certain reporting and notice requirements applicable to certain licensing boards and commissions

Proposes to repeal R.S. 37:23.2, relative to licensing boards and commissions, removing the requirement that boards/commissions submit quarterly reports to the appropriate legislative oversight committees and to the House Committee on House and Governmental Affairs and the Senate Committee on Senate and Governmental Affairs. Reports include the number of complaints received regarding board actions and procedures and a summary of each complaint and the disposition of each complaint. The proposed law also repeals the requirement that boards/commission give notice to applicants/licenses that they may submit complaints about the boards to the appropriate legislative oversight committee.

Effective upon governor's signature.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. The proposed law may reduce the workload of some boards and commissions and will vary by board and/or commission. There may also be a potential workload reduction for legislative staff. Reductions in workloads are not likely to lead to the elimination of positions with boards/commissions or the legislature, but rather allow for a reallocation of resources.
