Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Commerce to the original bill:

1. Remove proposed law which allows the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association and the involved licensed eligible facility to approve a reduction in racing days for a specific thoroughbred meet, and allows that written agreement to satisfy the racing day requirements of present law.
2. Add a contingent effective date which makes proposed law become effective upon a final and non-appealable class action settlement agreement being approved by a court.
3. Make technical changes.
