

2020 First Extraordinary Session

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 41

BY REPRESENTATIVE ECHOLS

A RESOLUTION

To express the condolences of the House of Representatives upon the death of Philip Andrew "Andy" Trahan, Jr., and to posthumously commend him for his lung cancer advocacy.

WHEREAS, Andy was born on December 5, 1979, in Bristol, Pennsylvania, and passed away Friday, June 19, 2020, at his home in Monroe, Louisiana; and

WHEREAS, Andy received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Louisiana at Monroe; he was also the owner and proprietor of Trahan Solutions; and

WHEREAS, Andy's children were his greatest source of pride and joy, and he never missed one of their events; he was a committed husband who adored his wife, and he cherished his time with his family; and

WHEREAS, Andy was a humble man who placed his faith in God above all else, and he was devoted to his church community; he was a longtime member of Jesus the Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Monroe, where he had served as president of the parish council; and

WHEREAS, Andy was an avid fan of all types of music, from hard rock to Christian music; he also loved sports and was a dedicated fan of the New Orleans Saints; and

WHEREAS, Andy was diagnosed with stage four lung cancer over seven years ago, and from that point on, he made it his life's mission to better understand his affliction so that he could help others; Andy was a fierce advocate in the fight against lung cancer; he worked tirelessly to end the stigma associated with lung cancer diagnoses and committed himself to increasing research and funding to work towards a cure for all those battling cancer; and

WHEREAS, Andy is survived by his loving wife of nearly seventeen years, Leslie Marsala Trahan; his children, Marsala Marie Trahan, Philip Andrew Trahan, III, and Josephine Ann Trahan; his parents, Philip A. and Karen Zimmerman Trahan; his brother, Joey Trahan, and his wife Sarah; his sister, Jennifer Trahan Loras, and her husband Victor; and a host of other relatives and dear friends; and

WHEREAS, Andy was a truly inspirational man who refused to let his diagnosis overshadow his many blessings in life; his commitment to helping others who battle cancer is a testament to his character, and for this he is most deserving of recognition; he will be deeply missed but certainly not forgotten.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the House of Representatives of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby express heartfelt condolences on the passing of Philip Andrew "Andy" Trahan, Jr., and posthumously commends him for his lung cancer advocacy; does hereby offer appreciation for his selflessness in the face of his battle with lung cancer; and does hereby extend sincere hopes and wishes that his family find peace and comfort during this challenging time.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the family of Philip Andrew "Andy" Trahan, Jr.
