

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 173 (HB 142)

2020 Regular Session

Robby Carter

Existing law provides for the definition and administration of small successions without the requirement of judicially opening the succession.

New law authorizes testate successions to be administered without judicial approval when the person has died testate, leaving no immovable property, and probate of the testament of the deceased would have the same effect as if the deceased had died intestate.

Effective Aug. 1, 2020.
