HB 222 Original

2021 Regular Session

Stefanski

Abstract: Provides relative to the use of technology in the commission of certain sex offenses against minors.

Present law provides for the crime of computer-aided solicitation of a minor which prohibits persons 17 and older from using electronic textual communication for the purpose of persuading a person under age 17 to engage in sexual conduct.

Present law also provides penalties for whomever commits the crime of computer-aided solicitation of a minor.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that it shall also be a violation of present law when a person 17 years of age or older uses another person 17 years or older to contact a person under the age of 17 years.

Present law provides for the crime of prohibited sexual conduct between an educator and a student and provides penalties.

Proposed law retains present law and specifies that lewd or lascivious acts committed in the virtual or physical presence of a student are also in violation of present law.

Proposed law defines "virtual".

Present law provides for the crime of video voyeurism and provides penalties.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that it shall also be a violation of present law when an adult manipulates a person under the age of 17 years to take a photograph, film, or videotape of oneself to send to the adult.

(Amends R.S. 14:81.4(A)(2); Adds R.S. 14:81.3(A)(5), 81.4(B)(5), and 283(A)(3))
