CURRICULA: Provides relative to required instruction in American history and civics in public schools

1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact R.S. 17:265, to enact R.S. 17:274.1(E), and to repeal R.S. 17:268,
3 relative to required instruction in public schools; to require public school governing
4 authorities to provide instruction on certain aspects of American history and civics;
5 and to provide for related matters.

6 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

7 Section 1. R.S. 17:265 is hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 17:274.1(E) is 8 hereby enacted to read as follows:

9 §265. The Founding Principles of the United States of America; required instruction

10 A.(1) The governing authority of each public school that offers courses in 11 American history and civics as prerequisites to graduation shall integrate into such 12 courses instruction regarding the Founding Principles of the United States of 13 America.

14 ~~B. (2)~~ Such instruction shall include but need not be limited to providing 15 students with information on the following:

16 ~~(1)~~ (a) The Creator-endowed unalienable rights of the people.

17 ~~(2)~~ (b) Structure of government and separation of powers with checks and 18 balances.

19 ~~(3)~~ (c) Frequent and free elections in a representative government.

20 ~~(4)~~ (d) Rule of law.

- 1           ~~(5)~~ (e) Equal justice under the law.
- 2           ~~(6)~~ (f) Private property rights.
- 3           ~~(7)~~ (g) Federalism.
- 4           ~~(8)~~ (h) Due process.
- 5           ~~(9)~~ (i) Individual rights as set forth in the Bill of Rights.
- 6           ~~(10)~~ (j) Individual responsibility.
- 7           (k) The Declaration of Independence.
- 8           (l) The Constitution of the United States.
- 9           (m) The Federalist Papers.
- 10          (n) The Gettysburg Address.
- 11          (o) National sovereignty.
- 12          (p) American exceptionalism.
- 13          (q) Globalism and the United Nations.
- 14          (r) Immigration policy.

15           B. Each public school governing authority shall provide age- and grade-
 16 appropriate instruction in civics, including but not limited to the founding principles
 17 enumerated in Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section, in grades kindergarten through eight.
 18 Such instruction may be incorporated into an existing course.

19           C. Textbooks and instructional materials used in the instruction required by
 20 this Section shall accurately reflect the contributions and achievements of ordinary
 21 Americans and promote an understanding of the history and values of the people of
 22 the United States and Louisiana, including the free enterprise system, the benefits of
 23 capitalism, private property, constitutional liberties, the value of a constitutional
 24 republic, and traditional standards of moral values.

26           §274.1. Civics and Free Enterprise; required; exceptions

27   *       *       *

28           E. Textbooks and instructional materials used in the instruction required by
 29 this Section shall accurately reflect the contributions and achievements of ordinary

1        Americans and promote an understanding of the history and values of the people of
 2        the United States and Louisiana, including the free enterprise system, the benefits of
 3        capitalism, private property, constitutional liberties, the value of a constitutional
 4        republic, and traditional standards of moral values.

5        Section 2. R.S. 17:268 is hereby repealed in its entirety.

6        Section 3. The Legislature of Louisiana finds that:

7        (1) True civics education is not political itself, but rather preparation for and
 8        prerequisite to mature political life.

9        (2) Respect for the liberties of students and teachers, the views of a politically
 10       diverse citizenry, and the tradition of institutional neutrality flow from true civics education.

11       (3) Political activism of one point of view over another has no place in formal
 12       education, which is intended to teach critical thinking skills to students, not to indoctrinate
 13       students to a particular political view.

HB 352 Original

2021 Regular Session

Hodges

Abstract: Requires further instruction on the nation's founding principles in required American history and civics courses in public schools.

Present law requires the governing authority of each public school offering American history and civics as prerequisites to graduation to include specified information regarding the founding principles of the U.S. in such courses. Proposed law retains present law and adds the following to the list of required information in such courses:

- (1) The Declaration of Independence.
- (2) The Constitution of the United States.
- (3) The Federalist Papers.
- (4) The Gettysburg Address.
- (5) National sovereignty.
- (6) American exceptionalism.
- (7) Globalism and the United Nations.
- (8) Immigration policy.

Proposed law requires that information on the founding principles of the U.S. be taught in grades kindergarten through eight.

Present law requires that textbooks adopted for use in public schools promote an understanding of the history and values of the people of the U.S. and La.

Proposed law retains present law.
