(Constitutional Amendment) Provides for the rates and brackets for purposes of calculating income taxes and limits the mandatory deduction for federal income taxes paid to corporate income taxes

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure alone. The deduction for federal taxes paid and the rate and bracket structure of the income tax are currently provided in statute, consistent with constitutional provisions. This constitutional amendment does not change those statutory provisions, and does not prohibit a federal tax deduction for individual income tax. This amendment would allow statutory changes to those provisions, but does not itself change them.
