§1592. Weekly benefit amount

A. (1) A claimant's weekly benefit amount shall be dependent upon the state's average unemployment rate, as that term is defined in R.S. 1595(C)(2). Whenever a claimant's base period wages for insured work is not less than one thousand two hundred dollars, his weekly benefit amount shall be as follows:

(a) An amount equivalent to one-twelfth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is at or below five and one half percent.

(b) An amount equivalent to one-thirteenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above five and one half percent and at or below six percent.

(c) An amount equivalent to one-fourteenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above six percent and at or below six and one half percent.

(d) An amount equivalent to one-fifteenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above six and one half percent and at or below seven percent.

(e) An amount equivalent to one-sixteenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above seven percent and at or below seven and one half percent.

(f) An amount equivalent to one-seventeenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above seven and one half percent and at or below eight percent.

(g) An amount equivalent to one-eighteenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above eight percent and at or below eight and one half percent.

(b) An amount equivalent to one-nineteenth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above eight and one half percent and at or below nine percent.

(i) An amount equivalent to one-twentieth of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period when the state's average unemployment rate is above nine percent.

(2) This amount, if the amount provided for in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection is not a multiple of one dollar, it shall be computed to the next lowest multiple of one dollar.

*   *   *

E. In no event shall the weekly amount paid under this Section be more than two three hundred eighty-four dollars.

§1595. Duration of benefits

A. (1) Any time the state's average unemployment rate is at or below five and one half percent, any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to twenty-six twelve times his weekly benefit amount as determined pursuant to R.S. 23:1592 provided that such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of one dollar, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of one dollar.

(2)(a) In addition to the amount provided in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection and when the state's average unemployment rate is above five and one half percent, any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled an additional amount of benefits equivalent to his weekly benefit amount as determined pursuant to R.S. 23:1592 times the number of half a percent increments that the state's average unemployment rate exceeds five and one half percent, provided that such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of one dollar, shall be computed to the nearest multiple of one dollar.

(b) The additional amount provided in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph shall not exceed an amount equivalent to eight times his weekly benefit amount.

B. (1) No claimant shall receive a benefit check for any week beyond the number of weeks computed on his initial claim unless that claimant is participating in a program providing partial unemployment as set forth in R.S. 23:1472(19)(a) or has been paid wages for part-time or full-time work.

(2) Further, if a base period employer has provided severance pay, which when prorated weekly is an amount which equals or exceeds the claimant's weekly benefit amount, the claimant's benefit entitlement computed pursuant to the provisions of this Subsection shall be reduced by one week for each week of severance pay, provided that no claimant's entitlement shall be reduced to less than one week.

B-C. (1) For the purposes of this Section, "wages" shall be counted as "wages for insured work" for the benefit purposes with respect to any benefit year only if the benefit year begins subsequent to the date on which the employing unit by whom the wages were paid became an employer within the meaning of this Chapter.

(2) For the purposes of this Section, "state average unemployment rate" means the average of the three months for the most recent third calendar quarter of the seasonally adjusted unemployment rates as published by the Louisiana Workforce Commission, who shall be responsible for collecting and publishing unemployment rate data.

D. The Louisiana Workforce Commission shall promulgate all rules and regulations as are necessary for the purposes of this Section.
Section 2. This Act shall take effect and become operative if and when the state's average unemployment rate, as defined is R.S. 23:1595, is less than five and one half percent for two consecutive calendar quarters.

DIGEST
SB 225 Original 2021 Regular Session Reese

Present law provides relative to the maximum weekly amount of unemployment benefits.

Present law requires the secretary of the La. Workforce Commission (commission) to provide the Revenue Estimating Conference (conference) with certification from the U.S. Treasury of the September 1st balance of the state unemployment trust fund of the current calendar year. Requires the conference to adopt and report its official projection to the commission no earlier than September 5th and no later than September 30th.

Present law provides that after the conference's adoption of the official projection of the state unemployment trust fund for September 1st of the next calendar year, the secretary shall determine the comparative balance. The comparative balance is the lesser amount of the balance of the state unemployment trust fund as certified by the U.S. Treasury as of September 1st in the current calendar year or as projected by the conference for the September 1st of the next calendar year.

Present law provides that the amount of the comparative balance shall be used by the secretary to determine the applied trust fund balance range, and simultaneously, the maximum weekly benefit.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law sets the maximum weekly benefit as follows:

1. When the applied trust fund balance range is less than $750,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $221.
2. When the applied trust fund balance range is equal to or greater than $750,000,000 but less than $1,150,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $247.
3. When the applied trust fund balance range is equal to or greater than $1,150,000,000 but less than $1,400,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $258.
4. When the applied trust fund balance range is greater than $1,400,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $284.

Proposed law increases the maximum weekly benefit as follows:

1. When the applied trust fund balance range is less than $750,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $251.
2. When the applied trust fund balance range is equal to or greater than $750,000,000 but less than $1,150,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $277.
3. When the applied trust fund balance range is equal to or greater than $1,150,000,000 but less than $1,400,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $290.

Coding: Words which are struck through are deletions from existing law; words in boldface type and underscored are additions.
(4) When the applied trust fund balance range is greater than $1,400,000,000, the maximum weekly benefit amount shall be $300.

Proposed law defines "state average unemployment rate" to mean the average of the three months for the most recent third calendar year quarter of the seasonally adjusted unemployment rates as published by the commission, who shall be responsible for collecting and publishing unemployment rate data.

Present law provides that any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to 26 times his weekly benefit amount, as determined by law, provided that such total amount of benefits, if not a multiple of one dollar, shall be rounded to the nearest dollar.

Proposed law changes the duration of benefits as follows:

(1) Any time the state's average unemployment rate is at or below 5.5%, any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled during any benefit year to a total amount of benefits equal to 12 times his weekly benefit amount as determined by law.

(2) In addition to the amount of benefits equal to 12 times his weekly benefit and when the state's average unemployment rate is above 5.5%, any otherwise eligible individual shall be entitled to an additional amount of benefits equivalent to his weekly benefit amount determined by law times the number of .5% increments that the state's average unemployment rate exceeds 5.5%, provided that such total amount of benefits, if not one dollar, shall be rounded to the nearest dollar. Provides that the additional amounts of weekly benefits shall not exceed an amount equivalent to eight times his weekly benefit amount.

Present law provides that whenever a claimant's base period wages for insured work is not less than $1,200, his weekly benefit amount shall be 1/25th of the average of his total wages for insured work paid during the four quarters of his base period and caps the weekly benefit amount paid at $284.

Proposed law changes formula of the weekly benefit amount to be based on the state's average unemployment rate.

Proposed law caps the weekly benefit amount paid at $300.

Effective when the state's average unemployment rate, as determined by the Louisiana Workforce Commission, is less than 5.5% for two consecutive calendar quarters.
