30 WHEREAS, team manager Miguel Silva was integral to the success of the Pope John

1 Paul II Jaguars season; and

2 WHEREAS, the Jaguars were coached by Head Coach Danny Clavier in his tenth 3 season at Pope John Paul II High School; coach Danny crossed the 100-win threshold this 4 season and was voted All-District Coach of the year; and

5 WHEREAS, the Jaguars were blessed to have two outstanding and dedicated 6 assistant coaches, Devin Jeanfreau was in charge of the team's technical training and Pope
7 John Paul II junior varsity team and Jason Schexnayder who was the team's goalkeeper 8 coach; and

9 WHEREAS, the team's athletic trainer, Jonah Bailey from the Louisiana Children's 10 Medical Center Group, was invaluable in maintaining the team's health and wellness; and

11 WHEREAS, appreciation is also extended to Pope John Paul II Jaguars former 12 LCMC athletic trainer, Allen Miller, for the strategic yoga sessions and continued guidance 13 he provided for recovery and strength; and

14 WHEREAS, the support of Pope John Paul II's administration was instrumental in 15 navigating a season with COVID-19 and weather challenges; and

16 WHEREAS, thanks and gratitude is owed to Principal Doug Triche, Athletic Director 17 Richard Dieduonne, and most of all, to the Jaguars number one fan, Assistant Principal 18 Kimberlie Kilroy; and
