2021 Regular Session

Marino

Abstract: Requires public school governing authorities and the state Dept. of Education to report certain data relative to students with dyslexia.

Present law provides for testing public school students for dyslexia.

Proposed law requires public school governing authorities to report to the state Dept. of Education relative to certain groups of students identified as having dyslexia, disaggregated by grade and type of education plan, by Sept. 1st annually. Requires the dept. to submit a cumulative report to the legislative education committees by Oct. 1st annually.
