EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There may be additional costs and workloads associated with providing instruction to students or in-service training to teachers on World War II and the Holocaust to the extent existing curricula must be modified in order to do so.

The Department of Education reports that these topics are already listed in existing content standards. If the instruction is only provided to students in relevant history and social studies courses, there will not be increased costs to local schools. However, if the instruction must be provided each year to students in grades 6 through 12, schools may have to provide instruction to students who are not enrolled in relevant courses through other means.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
