EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

Proposed law excludes certain purchases that include nicotine from the excise tax on smokeless tobacco. The proposed exclusion applies when the product contains no other substance that is defined as smokeless tobacco.

LDR reports that the proposed exclusion is likely to apply to alternative nicotine products such as nicotine pouches, lozenges, or toothpicks. Information is not presently collected on the volume of such purchases, and a revenue impact is indeterminable.
