24 ""Appraisal. If you and this Company fail to agree as to the amount of loss, 25 either party may demand that the amount of the loss be set by appraisal. If either 26 party makes a written demand for appraisal, each party shall select a competent 27 appraiser and notify the other party of their appraiser's identity within twenty days 28 of receipt of the written demand for appraisal. The appraisers shall select a 29 competent and impartial umpire; but, if after fifteen days the appraisers have not 30 agreed upon who will serve as umpire, the umpire shall be appointed by a judge of 31 the court of record in which the property is located. The appraisers shall then 32 appraise the loss. If the appraisers submit written notice of an agreement as to the

1 amount of the loss to this Company, the amount agreed upon shall set the amount of 2 the loss. If the appraisers fail to agree within thirty days, the appraisers shall submit 3 their differences along with any supporting documentation to the umpire, who shall 4 appraise the loss. The appraisers may extend the time to sixty days for which they 5 must agree upon the amount of loss or submit their differences and supporting 6 documents to the umpire, if the extension is agreed to by the appraisers from both 7 parties. A written agreement signed by the umpire and either party's appraiser shall 8 set the amount of the loss. Each appraiser shall be paid by the party selecting that 9 appraiser. Other expenses of the appraisal and the expenses of the umpire shall be 10 divided and paid in equal shares by you and this Company."
