AN ACT

To enact R.S. 22:1892(B)(6) and (E) through (G), relative to claims settlement practices; to provide for the definitions; to provide for insurance coverage of damaged property; to prohibit insurers from requiring insureds to use a preferred vendor or contractor; to provide for the adjustment and settlement of first-party losses under fire and extended coverage policies; to provide required adjustment dispute resolution language for residential property policies; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 22:1892(B)(6) and (E) through (G) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

§1892. Payment and adjustment of claims, policies other than life and health and accident; ~~personal~~ vehicle damage claims; extension of time to respond to claims during emergency or disaster; penalties; arson-related claims suspension

(6)(a) For the purposes of this Paragraph the following terms have the meanings ascribed to them:

(i) "Damaged property" means a dwelling, structure, personal property, or any other property, except a vehicle, that requires repairs, replacement, restoration, or remediation to reestablish its former condition.

1 (2) The deduction of prospective contractor overhead, prospective contractor 2 profit, and sales tax in determining the actual cash value of an adjustment or 3 settlement is not allowed on replacement cost policies or on actual cash value 4 policies.

5 G. On or after January 1, 2022, residential property insurance policies shall 6 contain the following provision (with permission to substitute the word "company" 7 with a more accurate descriptive term for the insurer):

8 "Appraisal. If you and this Company fail to agree as to the amount of loss, 9 either party may demand that the amount of the loss be set by appraisal. If either 10 party makes a written demand for appraisal, each party shall select a competent 11 appraiser and notify the other party of their appraiser's identity within twenty days
12 of receipt of the written demand for appraisal. The appraisers shall select a 13 competent and impartial umpire; but, if after fifteen days the appraisers have not 14 agreed upon who will serve as umpire, the umpire shall be appointed by a judge of 15 the court of record in which the property is located. The appraisers shall then 16 appraise the loss. If the appraisers submit written notice of an agreement as to the 17 amount of the loss to this Company, the amount agreed upon shall set the amount of 18 the loss. If the appraisers fail to agree within thirty days, the appraisers shall submit 19 their differences along with any supporting documentation to the umpire, who shall 20 appraise the loss. The appraisers may extend the time to sixty days for which they 21 must agree upon the amount of loss or submit their differences and supporting 22 documents to the umpire, if the extension is agreed to by the appraisers from both 23 parties. A written agreement signed by the umpire and either party's appraiser shall 24 set the amount of the loss, pursuant to the appraisal process, but shall not preclude 25 either party from exercising its rights under the policy or the law. Each appraiser 26 shall be paid by the party selecting that appraiser. Other expenses of the appraisal 27 and the expenses of the umpire shall be divided and paid in equal shares by you and 28 this Company. If there is an appraisal award, all applicable policy terms, limits, 29 deductibles, and conditions will still apply. If you file a lawsuit relative to this policy

1 against this Company prior to a demand for appraisal, the lawsuit will be held in 2 abatement until the execution of an appraisal award."
