HB 149 Original

2022 Regular Session

Illg

Abstract: Repeals provisions requiring that the Jefferson Parish attorney serve as the legal advisor for the Jefferson Parish Human Services Authority.

Present law creates and provides for the Jefferson Parish Human Services Authority as a local governing entity with local accountability and management of behavioral health, intellectual disability, and developmental disability services as well as any public health or other services contracted to it by the Louisiana Dept. of Health.

Proposed law repeals present law providing that the Jefferson Parish attorney shall be the legal advisor for the authority. Otherwise, retains present law.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
