HB 281 Original

2022 Regular Session

Marcelle

Abstract: Provides that per day civil penalties for failing to file or failing to timely file campaign reports begins after certified notice of delinquency is received and changes the cap for those per day penalties for district office candidates from $2,000 to $500 and for other office candidates from $1,000 to $500.

Present law provides that any candidate, the treasurer or chairman of a political committee, or any other person required to file campaign finance reports, who knowingly fails to file or who knowingly fails to timely file any such required may be assessed a civil penalty for each day until such report is filed. Present law (R.S. 42:1157(B)) requires the staff of the ethics board to mail by certified mail a notice of delinquency within four days after the due date of any report or statement due that the staff knows or has reason to know has not been timely filed.

Proposed law would change the beginning of the assessment of per day penalties to after the notice sent pursuant to present law is received.

Present law provides that the amount of the per day penalty may be:

- (a) $100 per day not to exceed $2500 for major office.
- (b) $60 per day not to exceed $2,000 for district office.
- (c) $40 per day not to exceed $1,000 for other office.

Proposed law changes the cap on the per day penalties for district office candidates from $2,000 to $500 and for other office candidates from $1,000 to $500.
