Abstract: Provides for property and casualty insurance policies.

Present law provides that any insurance policy terminating by its terms at a specified expiration date and not otherwise renewable may be renewed or extended at the option of the insurer.

Present law provides that such renewal shall be made upon a currently authorized renewal form and at the premium rate then required for a specific additional period or periods by a certificate or by endorsement of the policy, and without requiring the issuance of a new policy.

Proposed law retains present law and makes technical changes.
