HB 460 Original

2022 Regular Session

Brass

Abstract: Expands the purpose for which the governing authority may levy a special annual tax to include preventative programs and specifies what preventative programs encompass.

Present law allows a governing authority to levy a special annual tax not to exceed one mill for not more than 20 years, after a two-thirds vote of the total governing authority's membership and a public hearing, for purposes relative to a youth center and providing rehabilitative youth programs.

Present law provides that upon authorization by a majority of the electors and after a public hearing, a governing authority may levy an additional tax not to exceed two mills for not more than 20 years for such purposes that two-thirds of the membership of the governing authority has voted.

Proposed law retains present law and proposed law expands the purpose for which a governing authority may levy the special annual tax not to exceed one mill to include preventative programs.

Proposed law specifies what preventative programs encompass.
