Proposed law repeals the provision in present law requiring the commissioner to send notice and give an opportunity for a hearing and provides that an aggrieved party affected by the commissioner's decision, act, or order may demand a hearing in accordance with present law (Chapter 12 of Title 22, R.S. 22:2191 et seq.).

Present law provides that before an order for revocation of registration of securities is made final, the insurance company or other insurer applying for registration shall on application be entitled to a hearing, and after such hearing the commissioner shall notify it of the final ruling on the matter.

Proposed law repeals present law and provides that if an order of revocation is entered, the aggrieved party may demand a prompt hearing in accordance with present law (Chapter 12 of Title 22, R.S. 22:2191 et seq.).

Proposed law provides that if a hearing is not timely requested, the commissioner shall enter a final order revoking the registration of the security, with his findings with respect thereto. However, if upon a hearing, the division of administrative law finds that the revocation of the security was not according to law, the commissioner shall enter an order revoking the order of revocation and such security shall be restored to its status as a registered security as of the date of the order of suspension.
