2022 Regular Session

Stefanski

Abstract: Adjusts the cap currently placed on the salary of the executive director of the board of private investigators.

Present law creates the position of executive director of the board of private investigators and provides for his appointment, full-time status, classification of employment, and manner of salary determination. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law places a $50,000 maximum limit on the annual salary of the executive director. Proposed law adjusts the salary limitation from $50,000 to $90,000 annually.
