§331. Custody or visitation proceeding; evaluation by licensed mental health professional

A. The court may order an evaluation of a party or the child in a custody or visitation proceeding for good cause shown. The evaluation shall be made by a licensed mental health professional selected by the parties or by the court. The court may render judgment for costs of the evaluation, or any part thereof, against any party or parties, as it may consider equitable.

B. The court may order a party or the child to submit to and cooperate in the evaluation, testing, or interview by the licensed mental health professional. The licensed mental health professional shall provide the court and the parties with a written report. The licensed mental health professional shall serve as the witness of the court, subject to cross-examination by a party.

C. "Licensed mental health professional" as used in this Chapter means a person who possesses at least a master's degree and who is licensed in counseling, social work, psychology, or marriage and family counseling.

D. When a licensed mental health professional has been appointed by the court, there shall be no ex parte communication by the litigants or their attorneys with the licensed mental health professional unless authorized by law or court order or agreed to by the parties. All oral communication with the licensed mental health professional shall be by teleconference or meeting in which each party to the proceeding participates either through the party's attorney or as a self-represented litigant. All written communication or correspondence to the licensed mental health professional, along with any attachments thereto, shall be provided contemporaneously to all parties to the litigation or their attorneys of record.

1 §355.15. Mental health expert; appointment 2 The court, on motion of either party or on its own motion, may appoint an independent, licensed mental health professional as an expert to render a report to 3 4 assist the court in determining the best interest of the child. 5 §365. Qualification of licensed mental health professional 6 7 Any licensed mental health professional appointed by the court to conduct 8 a custody evaluation in a case where family violence is an issue shall have current 9 and demonstrable training and experience working with perpetrators and victims of 10 family violence.
