HB 272 Engrossed

2022 Regular Session

Jefferson

Abstract: Provides for mental health evaluations in divorce and child custody proceedings.

Present law (R.S. 9:327) allows a court to order a mental health evaluation of the parties when determining an award of final spousal support.

Proposed law requires the appointed mental health professional to be licensed.

Present law (R.S. 9:331) authorizes the court to order an evaluation of a party, conducted by a mental health professional, during a child custody or visitation proceeding.

Proposed law requires the mental health professional to be licensed and defines "licensed mental health professional".

Proposed law prohibits ex parte communications with the licensed mental health professional unless authorized by law, approved by the court, or agreed to by the parties.

Present law (R.S. 9:355.15) allows the court to appoint a mental health expert to assist the court in determining whether it is in the best interest of a child to allow a parent to relocate the residence of the child.

Proposed law requires the mental health expert to be a licensed professional.

Present law (R.S. 9:365) requires mental health professionals who conduct custody evaluations in family violence case to have experience relative to family violence.

Proposed law requires the mental health professional to be licensed.

(Amends R.S. 9:327(B), 331, 355.15, and 365)
