Provides relative to background checks of private training or driving instructor training schools or agencies

Under proposed law, the following are required to consent to, pass, and pay the cost of a criminal history records check (background check) including fingerprints from the Department of Public Safety (DPS), Office of Motor Vehicles (OMV): (1) the principal of the third-party examiner or tester seeking a contract with OMV to administer commercial and noncommercial driving examinations; and (2) every person, whether current or prospective, engaged in the business of operating a private driving instructor training school or agency or providing driving courses who has or is seeking a contract with or license from OMV. Proposed law requires a background check for initial applications and renewals. Proposed law requires the background check to be performed by the LA Bureau of Criminal Identification and Information within the Office of State Police.
