"§57.1. Failure to honor written promise to appear; penalty; disposition of fines

A. Whenever an arrested person who was released on his written promise to appear before a magistrate at the place and time specified in a summons described in R.S. 32:391(B) fails to honor his written promise to appear, the magistrate or judge of the court exercising jurisdiction may immediately forward to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections notice of the failure to appear, with information necessary for identification of the arrested person. Thereupon, unless the original charges have been disposed of, the Department of Public Safety and Corrections shall immediately notify the arrested person ~~of suspension of his operator's license and the imposition of a fifty-dollar fee, regardless of the disposition of the original charge. The Department of Public Safety and Corrections likewise shall inform the arrested person by certified mail return receipt requested that his operator's license cannot be renewed or reissued until the forwarding court exercising jurisdiction certifies that he had honored the appearance promise or paid an appropriate fine for the offense as determined by the forwarding court exercising jurisdiction~~ may be suspended if he fails to honor the written promise to appear or pay an appropriate fine for the offense within one hundred eighty days after the date the notice was received.

B. Whenever the arrested person makes an appearance as required by Subsection A hereof or pays an appropriate fine for the offense committed, as determined by the court, the prosecuting authority shall immediately notify the Department of Public Safety and Corrections thereof through the same means as the original notification of the arrested person's failure to appear. Upon such notification, ~~and payment of an additional fifty~~ one hundred dollars to the department, ~~if the operator's license of the arrested person was suspended pursuant to Subsection A,~~ the operator's license of the arrested person shall be released from

1 the pending suspension, renewed, or reissued for the purpose of this Section. Twelve
2 dollars and fifty cents of ~~the additional~~ any fine imposed by this Section shall be paid
3 to the court exercising jurisdiction, to be deposited in that court's criminal court fund 4 and to be used in the same manner as the other sums deposited in said fund.
