SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 92

BY SENATOR FIELDS

CONDOLENCES. Expresses sincere and heartfelt condolences for the death of Mr. Johnnie Jones Sr.

A RESOLUTION

To express sincere condolences upon the passing of Johnnie A. Jones Sr. and to gratefully acknowledge his extraordinary career of public service on behalf of the citizens of Louisiana.

WHEREAS, Johnnie A. Jones Sr. was a uniquely talented civil rights lawyer and decorated veteran who provided many decades of public service to his beloved Louisiana; and

WHEREAS, his storied legacy began in Laurel Hill, Louisiana, where Johnnie A. Jones was born November 30, 1919, to a family of local farmers on Rosemound Plantation, and though his parents stressed the importance of education, they also instilled in him the value of hard work; and

WHEREAS, Johnnie worked hard to earn the $17.50 tuition to attend high school at Southern University Demonstration School, which was later named Southern University Lab School, and after graduating, he went on to major in industrial education at Southern University, and in 1942, he was drafted by the United States Army where he became the Army's first African-American warrant officer assigned to a unit responsible for unloading equipment and supplies onto the Normandy beaches in France; and

WHEREAS, during the June 6, 1944, invasion as Jones came ashore on Omaha

1 Beach, he came under fire from a German sniper, he grabbed his weapon, returned fire, and 2 this became a memory that haunted him all his life; he continued to exhibit bravery as he 3 served his country; thereafter, a ship that he was stationed on hit a mine and Johnnie was 4 blown from the second deck to the first deck; it was during this attack he was hit with 5 shrapnel and badly injured; and

6 WHEREAS, by the end of World War II, more than a million African Americans 7 were in uniform including the famed Tuskegee Airmen and the 761st Tank Battalion, but 8 these heroes returned from the war only to encounter discrimination in their home country; 9 and

10 WHEREAS, these events served as a call to action to fight racism in which Johnnie 11 obtained a law degree from Southern University Law School, was recruited in 1953 to be the 12 spokesperson for the NAACP, and helped organize a bus boycott in Baton Rouge and defend 13 the participants; an event used by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as the basis for a 14 larger bus boycott in Montgomery, Alabama, several years later; and

15 WHEREAS, in his law practice Jones provided legal aid to students arrested during 16 sit-ins; defended the Southern University students who staged the lunch counter protest at 17 the Kress department store in downtown Baton Rouge, and he helped desegregate the 18 courthouse; and

19 WHEREAS, in his quest to obtain equality for African Americans in the United 20 States, Jones' vehicle was bombed twice, but he persevered and was an active participant in 21 the social justice movement that would widely impact future generations; and

22 WHEREAS, Jones' many accolades include the Sign Post To Freedom award from 23 the Odell S. Williams Museum/Sadie Roberts Joseph; a special recognition from Governor
24 John Bel Edwards; SAVE BR Youth Prayer Movement; Taking A Seat For Justice-Award
25 of Excellence; Southern University National Lawyers Guild, Pillar Award; Chairman Award,
26 Civil Rights Icon, Louisiana Legislative Black Caucus Foundation; Louis A. Martinet
27 Society, Lifetime Achievement; the Louisiana Black History Hall of Fame; and Baton Rouge
28 Chapter of The Links, Louisiana Role Model; and

29 WHEREAS, in 2020, the French government presented Johnnie A. Jones Sr. with the 30 Legion of Honor award for his World War II service and though it took decades for Jones'

1 sacrifice and courage during World War II to be recognized, in 2021 at the age of one
2 hundred one, he finally received his Purple Heart, which is awarded to U.S. service members 3 killed or wounded in action; and

4 WHEREAS, Johnnie A. Jones Sr. was a man who lived an exceptional life and the 5 value of his service to his country and to his state cannot be measured.

6 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana
7 does hereby express sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family of Johnnie A. Jones Sr.
8 and does gratefully acknowledge his extraordinary career of miliary service and dedication 9 to civil rights.

10 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 11 family of Johnnie A. Jones Sr.
