EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law provides updates to supplemental pay as follows: (1) increasing membership of the board of review from three to seven members, (2) clarifies the period of service, (3) allows chiefs of police or marshals to approve the disbursement of supplemental pay funds, and (4) expands eligibility to include furloughs. The Supplemental Pay Board of Review for Municipal Police Officers does not receive per diem or travel reimbursements. Therefore, there is no expenditure impact as a result of expanding the board of review. The proposed law does not increase expand eligibility for supplemental pay or increase supplemental pay expenditures.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
