6 "WHEREAS, the Louisiana State University School of Veterinary Medicine
7 serves as the only veterinary school in the state and through its missions of teaching, 8 healing, discovering, and protecting provides for the mutually dependent health of 9 animals, people, and the environment by teaching the next generation of 10 veterinarians and biomedical scientists to attain the highest levels of intellectual and 11 medical expertise, cultural competency, ethical standards, and personal development, 12 which aid in healing Louisiana's animal patients, and in so doing improving the 13 economics and well-being of the people who rely on them; and

14 WHEREAS, the Louisiana State University School of Veterinary Medicine
15 also provides an important public health benefit to the state by monitoring, detecting, 16 communicating, preventing, and treating emerging and potential threats and 17 outbreaks of various animal diseases, while discovering new therapies, diagnostics, 18 and mechanisms that lead to cures of animal and human diseases ensuring the 19 livestock and companion animal population and citizens of our state remain healthy 20 and safe; and

21 WHEREAS, the goals of the Louisiana State University School of Veterinary 22 Medicine include increasing class size to serve the growing demand for veterinarians 23 throughout the state, expanding faculty to enhance teaching and research efforts 24 specifically in the biomedical areas of preventing and curing animal and human 25 disease, engaging new and creative avenues of external research funding, and
