HB 841 Engrossed

2022 Regular Session

Boyd

Abstract: Restricts online access to the name of a judge relative to information regarding the judge's domiciliary address in a publicly accessible website of a parish property tax assessor or collector.

Proposed law provides that any judge may request to have his name removed from information concerning his domiciliary address on a publicly accessible website containing the property assessment rolls of a parish property tax assessor or tax collector. Proposed law provides that the request shall be a written request submitted each year to the parish tax assessor or collector along with proof of the current holding of judicial office.

Proposed law provides that a person wishing to access personal ownership information of a property may request the records at the office of or by submitting a written request by mail or electronic mail to the parish property tax assessor or collector.

Proposed law provides that proposed law shall not be construed to restrict public access to records concerning immovable property in the parish.
