16 E.(1) No person shall cause to be distributed or transmitted for or on behalf 17 of a candidate for political office any oral, visual, digital, or written material 18 constituting a paid political announcement or advertisement, which is paid for by a 19 third-party entity, without providing the name of the third-party entity on the face of 20 the advertisement. The name of the third-party entity shall be included on written 21 and digital material, political announcements, and advertisements so that it is clear 22 and understandable.

1           (2) The name of the third-party entity in visual and oral political 2 announcements or advertisements shall be included so that it is clearly 3 understandable as well as audible and visible for not less than three seconds. If the 4 advertisement is placed by a public relations firm, advertising agency, media buyer, 5 or other person who purchases media advertising or time or space for such 6 advertising, such person shall provide the information required by this Section.

7           (3) In digital announcements or advertisements, the name of the third-party 8 entity shall appear in a text sized at least as large as the smallest text in the digital 9 material or in a heading or similar section of text displayed above or within the 10 digital material that is visually distinct from the remainder of the digital material's 11 text and shall have a reasonable degree of color contrast between the background and 12 the name of the third-party entity.

13           (4) For the purposes of this Subsection, "person" means any individual, 14 partnership, association, labor union, political committee, corporation, or other legal 15 entity, including its subsidiaries; ~~however, "person" shall not mean any radio station,~~
16 ~~television broadcast station, cable television company, or newspaper.~~

17           (5)(a) A media entity, who broadcasts a paid political announcement or 18 advertisement, the content of which the broadcaster has no input in or control over, 19 is not subject to the provisions of this Subsection.

20           (b) For purposes of this Subsection, a media entity includes a radio broadcast 21 station, television broadcast station, cable or satellite television company, or other 22 video service provider, streaming video provider, newspaper company, periodical 23 company, billboard company, advertisement agency, or media platform responsible 24 for the production or publication of any advertisement, voice, data, or other 25 communications, information services, or internet access provider, or bona fide news 26 or public interest website operator.

27           F. For the purposes of this Section, The term "digital material" means any 28 material or communication that, for a fee, is placed or promoted on a public facing 29 website, web application, or digital application, including a social network, 30 advertising network, or search engine.

1                   G. Whoever violates any provision of this Section shall be fined not more 2                   than two thousand dollars or be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for not more 3                   than two years, or both.

4                   Section 2. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not 5                   signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature
 6                   by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 7                   vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 8                   effective on the day following such approval.
