Subject: Prohibits Insurance Providers Requiring Certain Vaccinations		Analyst: Patrice Thomas

INSURANCE POLICIES EG1 NO IMPACT See Note Page 1 of 1

Prohibits insurance companies from requiring a person or business to have a certain vaccination status or requiring information from an applicant or policyholder regarding vaccination status. (8/1/22)

Proposed law prohibits an insurer from requiring or requesting the vaccination status of anyone presently covered or applying/enrolling for coverage or requesting or requiring policies or procedures on vaccination status. Proposed law prohibits an insurer when determining eligibility for coverage, establishing premiums, limiting coverage, or other underwritings from doing the following: (1) Requiring, requesting, or purchasing information on vaccination status; (2) Requiring or requesting a vaccine as a requirement for coverage; (3) Terminating, denying, restricting, limiting, excluding, or otherwise applying conditions on vaccination status; (4) Imposing a rider that excludes coverage for certain benefits or services under the insurance plan, or restricting the sale of the insurance plan based on vaccination status; (5) Establishing differentials in premium rates or cost sharing for coverage under the insurance plan based on vaccination status; (6) Otherwise discriminating based on vaccination status. Proposed law does not apply to life insurance, annuity products, retirement plans, long-term care insurance, disability income insurance, reinsurance, or dental, vision, and other supplemental benefit products. Proposed law provides for an exception so that insurers may incentivize or reward a business, family member, or individual for voluntarily submitting vaccination status for a wellness or health improvement program. Proposed law effective 8/01/2022.
