Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Provides that there is no duty to record fingerprints if the fingerprint system at the local prison is unavailable.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law (R.S. 15:545) provides for the duty of law enforcement to record the fingerprints of all persons in their custody who have been convicted of any sex offense or any criminal offense against a victim who is a minor for which the penalty of imprisonment might be imposed.

Proposed law provides for the duty of law enforcement to record the fingerprints of all persons arrested for any offense involving the operation of a vehicle while intoxicated, including local ordinances pertaining to operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. Provides that there shall be no duty to record fingerprints if the fingerprint system at the local prison is unavailable.

Present law (R.S. 15:590) provides for the obtaining and filing of fingerprint and identification data of any person who commits certain offenses.

Proposed law retains present law and expands the list of offenses that involves the operation of a motor vehicle while intoxicated, including local ordinances pertaining to operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.
