§17.1. Exception for meetings during a gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter to the contrary, a public body, except the legislature or a committee or subcommittee thereof, may conduct and its members may attend and participate in a meeting via electronic means provided:

*          *          *

§17.2. Exception for meetings of legislative houses and committees during a... gubernatorially declared disaster or emergency

A. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter to the contrary, members of the legislature or a legislative committee may remotely attend, participate, vote, and transact business via electronic means provided:

(1) The governor has declared a state of emergency or disaster and the nature of the emergency or disaster would cause a meeting of the legislature or legislative committee conducted pursuant to the other provisions of this Chapter to be detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of the public.

(2) The presiding officer of the house of which he is a member certifies on the notice of the meeting that the agenda of the meeting is limited to one or more of the following:

(a) Matters that are directly related to the legislature's response to the disaster or emergency and are critical to the health, safety, or welfare of the public.

(b) Matters that if they are delayed will cause curtailment of vital public services or severe economic dislocation and hardship.

(c) Matters that are critical to continuation of the business of the legislature and that are not able to be postponed to a meeting held in accordance with the other provisions of this Chapter due to a legal requirement or other deadline that cannot be postponed or delayed by the legislature.

B. No later than twenty-four hours prior to a meeting to be conducted pursuant to the provisions of this Section, the legislature or legislative committee shall provide for all of the following:

(1) The notice and agenda for the meeting, which shall be posted on the legislative website, emailed to any member of the public who requests notice of the meeting, and widely distributed upon request to every known news media outlet that broadcasts or publishes legislative news.

(2) Detailed information regarding how members of the public may participate in the meeting and submit comments regarding matters on the agenda, which information shall be posted on the legislative website, emailed to... any member of the public who requests notice of the meeting, and widely distributed upon request to every known news media outlet that broadcasts or publishes legislative news.

C. Each meeting conducted pursuant to this Section shall comply with the following:

(1) The legislature or a legislative committee shall provide a mechanism to receive public comment electronically both prior to and during the meeting.

(2) The legislature or a legislative committee shall properly identify and acknowledge all public comments during the meeting and shall maintain those comments in its record of the meeting.

(3) The presiding officer shall ensure that each person participating in the meeting is properly identified.

(4) The presiding officer shall ensure that all parts of the meeting, excluding any matter discussed in executive session, are clear and audible to all participants in the meeting including the public.

(5) Before being allowed to testify, each person appearing before a legislative committee shall swear or affirm that his testimony is true and correct. He shall then be considered to be under oath while providing testimony before the committee and subject to punishment for contempt.

D. For the purposes of this Section, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Meeting via electronic means" shall mean a meeting occurring via teleconference or video conference.

(2) "Teleconference" shall mean a method of communication which enables persons in different locations to participate in a meeting and to hear and otherwise communicate with each other.

(3) "Video conference" shall mean a method of communication which enables persons in different locations to participate in a meeting and to see, hear, and otherwise communicate with each other.

Section 2. R.S. 24:7.1 is hereby repealed in its entirety.
Section 3. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature by the governor, as provided by Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on the day following such approval.
