17 * * *

18 (e) In the case of the sale of intangible property, other than as provided in 19 Subparagraph (d) of this Paragraph, where the property sold is a contract right,

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law requires sales of intangible property not otherwise described in present law to be excluded from the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor.

Proposed law repeals this requirement.

Present law provides that if the taxpayer's customer is an individual, the taxpayer shall source receipts from the sale of a service as follows:

- (2) Services that are not direct personal services that are delivered to customers who are natural persons with a La. billing address shall be sourced to this state.

Present law provides that if the taxpayer's customer is an entity unrelated to the taxpayer, the taxpayer shall source receipts from the sale of a service as follows:

- (1) If a service is provided to an unrelated entity and the service has a substantial connection to a specific geographic location, the income shall be sourced to La. if the geographic location is in this state. Service receipts that have a substantial connection to geographic locations in multiple states shall be reasonably sourced between those states.
- (2) If the service provided to an unrelated entity does not have a substantial connection to a specific geographic location, sales from services delivered to unrelated entities shall be sourced to the commercial domicile of the taxpayer.
- (3) If the sourcing methodology in present law fails to reflect the taxpayer's market in this state, the taxpayer may utilize, or the department may require, the use of other criteria and methodologies to approximate the taxpayer's market in this state.

Proposed law retains present law.

Present law provides that if the taxpayer is not taxable in a state to which a sale is assigned or if the state of assignment cannot be determined or reasonably approximated then the sale shall be excluded from the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Proposed law is applicable to tax years beginning on or after Jan. 1, 2024.

Effective Jan. 1, 2024.
