AN ACT

To enact Chapter 2-C of Title 12 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be comprised of R.S. 9:3580.1 through R.S. 9:3580.6, relative to litigation disclosure; to provide relative to financial disclosure; to provide relative to the creation of the Litigation Financing Disclosure and Security Protection Act; to provide for definitions, terms, and conditions; to provide for discovery; to provide for contract disclosures; to provide with respect to class action lawsuits; to provide for solidary liability; to provide for violations and contracts; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. Chapter 2-C of Title 12 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, comprised of R.S. 9:3580.1 through R.S. 9:3580.6, is hereby enacted to read as follows:

CHAPTER 2-C. LITIGATION FINANCING DISCLOSURE AND SECURITY PROTECTION

§3580.1. Short title

This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Litigation Financing Disclosure and Security Protection Act".

Purpose. The purpose of this Act is to maintain integrity and establish transparency in our civil justice system. The use of third party litigation funding in lawsuits is becoming more prevalent in our judicial system. The United States maintains one of the largest third party litigation funding markets in the world. Investments are being made by foreign hedge funds, private equity funds, and in some cases, sovereign wealth funds connected to hostile governments. These nonparty participants have an impact on the speed and manner of resolution of a lawsuit. The entrance of both foreign and domestic actors in third party litigation funding has the potential to encourage frivolous lawsuits, prolong settlement efforts, and harm the sanctity of the client-attorney relationship, all with the intended goal of overwhelming our courts, weakening critical industries, and draining the resources of both private and corporate citizens. The use of third party litigation financing by agents of hostile governments can threaten the integrity of our national security by providing access to technological competitive information, trade secrets, and other confidential information.

To guard against these threats, while maintaining legitimate access to third party litigation funding, it is imperative that parties seeking to avail themselves of third party litigation funding disclosures, pursuant to the requirements of this Act, when such financing is used to support litigation.

§3580.2, Definitions

For the purpose of this Chapter, the following terms have the meanings ascribed to them in this Section, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "Legal representative" means an attorney, group of attorneys, or law firm who may be entitled to represent a person or persons in a legal dispute in this state.

(2) "Litigation financer" means a person, group of persons, or legal entity, engaged in the business of litigation financing or any other economic activity intended to facilitate litigation financing.
(3)(a) "Litigation financing" means the financing, funding, advancing, or loaning of money to pay for fees, costs, expenses, or has agreed to pay expenses directly related to the prosecuting the legal claim, administrative proceeding, claim, or cause of action, if the financing, funding, advancing, or loaning of money is provided by any person other than a person who is any of the following:

(i) A party to the civil action, administrative proceeding, claim, or cause of action.

(ii) A legal representative engaged, directly or indirectly through another legal representative, to represent a party in the civil action, administrative proceeding, claim, or cause of action.

(iii) An entity or insurer with a preexisting contractual obligation to indemnify or defend a party to the civil action, administrative proceeding, claim, or cause of action.

(b) Funds provided directly to a party solely for personal needs shall not be considered litigation financing provided such funds are provided exclusively for personal and family use and not for legal filings, legal document preparation and drafting, appeals, creation of a litigation strategy, drafting testimony, and related litigation expenses.

(4) "Litigation financing contract or agreement" means a transaction in which litigation financing is provided to a party or legal representative in return for assigning to the litigation financer a contingent right to receive an amount including payment of interest, fees or any other consideration for the financing provided out of the proceeds of any realized judgment, award, settlement, or verdict the party may receive on the underlying claim or action. The term "litigation financing contract or agreement" does not include:

(a) Legal representation services provided to a party by a legal representative on a contingency fee basis, or legal costs advanced by a legal representative when such services or costs are provided to or on behalf of a party by a legal representative in the dispute and in accordance with the Louisiana Rules of Professional Conduct.

(b) The bills, receivables, or liens held by a medical provider or their assignee.

(c) Secured or unsecured loans made directly to a party or legal representative when repayment of the loan is not contingent upon the judgment, award, settlement, or verdict in a claim or action.

(5) "National security" interests are those interests that encompass the national defense, foreign intelligence and counterintelligence, international and internal security, and foreign relations.

(6) "Party" means any person or entity or any legal representative of such person or entity.

(7) "Proprietary information" shall mean information developed, created, or discovered by an entity, or which became known by, or was conveyed to the entity, which has commercial value in the entity's business.
"Proprietary information" shall include but not be limited to domain names, trade secrets, copyrights, ideas, techniques, inventions whether patentable or not, and any other information of any type relating to designs, configurations, documentation, recorded data, schematics, circuits, mask works, layouts, source code, object code, master works, master databases, algorithms, flow charts, formulae, works of authorship, mechanisms, research, manufacture, improvements, assembly, installation, intellectual property including patents and patent applications, and the information concerning the entity's actual or anticipated business, research or development, or which is received in confidence by or for the entity from any other person.

§3580.3. Disclosure of financing agreements; discovery

A. Except as otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the court, a party or his legal representative shall, without awaiting a discovery request and no later than sixty days after the entry of such agreement, provide to all parties to the litigation, including their insurer if prior to litigation, any litigation financing contract or agreement under which anyone, other than a legal representative permitted to charge a contingent fee representing a party, has received or has a right to receive compensation or proceeds that are contingent on and sourced from any proceeds of the civil action, by settlement, judgment, or otherwise.

B. Except as otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the court, a party or his legal representative shall, without awaiting a discovery request and no later than sixty days after the entry of such agreement, provide to all parties to the litigation, including their insurer if prior to litigation, any litigation financing contract or other agreement, under which anyone other than the party’s legal representative permitted to charge a contingent fee representing a party, has received or is entitled to receive, proprietary information or information affecting national defense or security, obtained as a result of the litigation.

C. The existence of litigation financing, litigation financing contract or agreement, and all participants in such financing arrangements are permissible subjects of discovery in all civil cases, including personal injury litigation or matters arising out of personal injuries.

D. This Chapter shall not apply to nonprofit legal organizations funded by private donors that represent clients on a pro bono, no-cost basis provided that the nonprofit legal organization seeks only injunctive relief on behalf of its clients. Awards of costs or attorney fees to nonprofit legal organizations shall not be affected by this Chapter. This Chapter shall not be interpreted to require a nonprofit legal organization to disclose its donors or sources of funding.

§3580.4. Class action lawsuits

This Chapter shall apply to any action filed or certified as a class action.
In addition to the disclosure requirements set forth in R.S. 9:3580.3, the legal representative of the putative class shall disclose to all parties, putative class members, and the court, any legal, financial, or other relationship between the legal representative and the litigation financer.

§3580.5. Solidary liability

A litigation financer is solidarily liable for costs assessed by the court relative to the payment of any monetary sanction imposed pursuant to the Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure on the party whose claim or action the litigation financer is funding pursuant to a litigation financing transaction.

§3580.6. Violation; unenforceable contract

Any violation of this Chapter shall make the litigation financing contract unenforceable by the litigation financer, the party, or any successor-in-interest to the litigation financing contract.
