2023 Regular Session

HOUSE BILL NO. 81

BY REPRESENTATIVES CREWS, AMEDEE, AND GAROFALO

Prefiled pursuant to Article III, Section 2(A)(4)(b)(i) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

EDUCATION: Provides relative to the use of certain names and pronouns for students

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Given Name Act".

Section 2.(A) The legislature finds that:

(1) The Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America protects the right of parents to direct the care, upbringing, education, and welfare of their children.

(2) The United States Supreme Court has held that: "[T]he Due Process Clause does not permit a State to infringe on the fundamental right of parents to make child rearing decisions simply because a state judge believes a 'better' decision could be made". Troxel v. Granville, 530 U.S. 57, at 72-73 (plurality op.).

(3) The United States Supreme Court has explained that the liberty specially protected by the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America includes the right "to direct the

(4) In Garcetti v. Ceballos, 547 U.S. 410 (2006), the United States Supreme Court has held that public employees do not retain First Amendment protection for speech uttered in the context of their official duties as they are not speaking as public citizens.

(5) Individuals under the age of eighteen are minors, and the courts have recognized their immaturity and the unique nature of the public school setting.

(B) It is the intent of the legislature that the public education system uphold the constitutional and long-recognized rights of parents and that appropriate limitations be set on employee speech within the context of public education.

Section 3. R.S. 17:2122 and 3996(B)(75) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

§2122. Pronouns and names; biological sex; parental permission; policies

A. As used in this Section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Employee" means any individual working in any capacity at a public school, whether paid or as a volunteer, including but not limited to teachers and other school employees, school bus operators, extracurricular personnel, and independent contractors.

(2) "Parent" means a student's parent or legal guardian.

(3) "Sex" means a person's biological sex as listed on his original birth certificate.

(4) "Student" means a public school student under the age of eighteen who has not been legally emancipated.

B.(1)(a) An employee shall use the name, or a derivative thereof, for a student that is listed on the student's birth certificate unless the student's parent provides written permission to do otherwise.

(b) An employee shall use the pronouns for a student that align with the student's sex unless the student's parent provides written permission to do otherwise.
(2) No employee shall be required to use pronouns for any person that differ from the pronouns that align with that person's sex if doing so is contrary to the employee's religious or moral convictions. If a teacher objects to using a pronoun for a student based on the teacher's religious or moral convictions, the student's parent may request a transfer to another teacher.

(3) Nothing in this Subsection shall be construed to prohibit employees from discussing matters of public concern outside the context of their official duties.

(4) Any individual aggrieved by an intentional violation of this Subsection may seek relief. However, a school employee shall not be held liable if the administration fails to provide information provided in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection.

C. Each public school governing authority shall adopt policies for implementing the provisions of this Section.

D. Employees are prohibited from discussing the application of this Section relative to a student's preferred name and pronouns with other students.

§3996. Charter schools; exemptions; requirements

B. Notwithstanding any state law, rule, or regulation to the contrary and except as may be otherwise specifically provided for in an approved charter, a charter school established and operated in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and its approved charter and the school's officers and employees shall be exempt from all statutory mandates or other statutory requirements that are applicable to public schools and to public school officers and employees except for the following laws otherwise applicable to public schools with the same grades:

(75) Names and pronouns, R.S. 17:2122.

HB 81 Reengrossed 2023 Regular Session Crews

Abstract: Requires public school employees to use certain names and pronouns for students unless parents provide written permission to do otherwise.

Proposed law requires school employees to:

(1) Use the name for a student that is listed on his birth certificate, or a derivative thereof, unless his parent provides written permission to do otherwise.

(2) Use the pronoun for a student that aligns with his sex unless his parent provides written permission to do otherwise.

Proposed law provides that an employee shall not be required to use pronouns for any person that differ from the pronouns that align with that person's sex if doing so is contrary to the employee's religious or moral convictions. Authorizes parents to request a transfer to another teacher if a teacher objects to using a pronoun for a student on these grounds.

Proposed law defines "employee" as any individual working in any capacity at a public school, paid or volunteer, including but not limited to teachers and other school employees, school bus operators, extracurricular personnel, and independent contractors, and defines "sex" as the biological sex as listed on the person's original birth certificate.

Proposed law further provides:

(1) Proposed law shall not shall be construed to prohibit employees from discussing matters of public concern outside the context of their official duties.

(2) Any individual aggrieved by an intentional violation of proposed law may seek relief; however, provides that a school employee shall not be held liable if the administration fails to provide information relative to a student's name or pronouns.

(3) Employees shall not discuss the application of proposed law relative to a student's preferred name and pronouns with other students.

(4) Each public school governing authority shall adopt policies for proposed law implementation.
