EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure.

According to officials with the 36th JDC, this bill brings the law in line with the current fees charged by court reporters. While these fees were increased last year, there are no immediate changes planned that would impact governmental expenditures. Therefore, this bill is not expected to impact governmental expenditures.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.

The court reporter fees specified in this bill are paid directly to the court reporters by the parties that request and obtain transcripts and copies.
