SB 184 Reengrossed

2023 Regular Session

Peacock

Present law provides that any loans made by a candidate to his own campaign may be repaid from campaign funds received in connection with an election in which the candidate qualified for a public office.

Proposed law provides that notwithstanding any other provision of law any loans made by a candidate to his own campaign may be repaid from any campaign contributions received, subject to the campaign contribution limits in effect when the debt was incurred.

Effective August 1, 2023.
