2023 Regular Session

ENROLLED

SENATE BILL NO. 196

BY SENATOR PEACOCK AND REPRESENTATIVE GAROFALO

Prefiled pursuant to Article III, Section 2(A)(4)(b)(i) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

1	AN ACT
2	To enact Chapter 2-C of Title 12 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be comprised
3	of R.S. 9:3580.1 through R.S. 9:3580.5, relative to litigation disclosure; to provide
4	relative to financial disclosure; to provide relative to the creation of the Litigation
5	Financing Disclosure and Security Protection Act; to provide for definitions, terms,
6	and conditions; to provide for discovery; to provide for contract disclosures; to
7	provide with respect to class action lawsuits; to provide for violations and contracts;
8	and to provide for related matters.
9	Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:
10	Section 1. Chapter 2-C of Title 12 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950,
11	comprised of R.S. 9:3580.1 through R.S. 9:3580.5, is hereby enacted to read as follows:
12	CHAPTER 2-C. LITIGATION FINANCING
13	DISCLOSURE AND SECURITY PROTECTION
14	§3580.1. Short title
15	This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Litigation
16	Financing Disclosure and Security Protection Act".
17	Purpose. The purpose of this Act is to maintain integrity and establish
18	transparency in our civil justice system. The use of third party litigation
19	funding in civil actions is becoming more prevalent in our judicial system. The
20	United States maintains one of the largest third party litigation funding markets
21	in the world. Investments are being made by foreign hedge funds, private equity
22	funds, and in some cases, sovereign wealth funds connected to hostile
23	governments. These nonparty participants have an impact on the speed and

1	manner of resolution of a lawsuit. The entrance of both foreign and domestic
2	actors in third party litigation funding has the potential to encourage frivolous
3	lawsuits, prolong settlement efforts, and harm the sanctity of the client-attorney
4	relationship, all with the intended goal of overwhelming our courts, weakening
5	critical industries, and draining the resources of both private and corporate
6	citizens. The use of third party litigation financing by agents of hostile
7	governments can threaten the integrity of our national security by providing
8	access to technological competitive information, trade secrets, and other
9	confidential information.
10	To guard against these threats, while maintaining legitimate access to
11	third party litigation funding, it is imperative that parties seeking to avail
12	themselves of third party litigation funding disclose such agreements, pursuant
13	to the requirements of this Act, when such financing is used to support
14	litigation.
