HB 10 Engrossed

2024 Second Extraordinary Session

Villio

Abstract: Provides relative to diminution of sentence.

Present law (R.S. 15:571.3) provides relative to the requirements that an offender needs to meet in order to be eligible for diminution of sentence for good behavior.

Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law (R.S. 15:571.3(G)) provides that no person who commits an offense on or after Aug. 1, 2024, shall be eligible to earn nor be entitled to any diminution of sentence or good time, except as provided in proposed law (R.S. 15:571.3.1).

Proposed law (R.S. 15:571.3.1) provides that no person who commits an offense on or after Aug. 1, 2024, shall be eligible to earn nor be entitled to any diminution of sentence, known as "good time", except as provided in proposed law.

Proposed law provides that every offender in a parish prison or in custody of the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections (DPS&C), who has been convicted of a felony and sentenced to imprisonment with or without hard labor, may earn diminution of sentence for good behavior up to a maximum amount of 15% of the particular sentence imposed.

Proposed law shall not apply to any person who has been convicted of a sex offense as defined in present law (R.S. 15:541) or to any person who has been sentenced as an habitual offender under the Habitual Offender Law as set forth in present law (R.S. 15:529.1).

Proposed law provides that every offender in a parish prison or in custody of the DPS&C, who has been convicted of a felony and sentenced to imprisonment with or without hard labor, may earn an additional diminution of sentence as provided in present law (R.S. 15:828).

Proposed law shall not apply to any person who has been convicted of a sex offense as defined in present law (R.S. 15:541).

Proposed law provides that there shall be no diminution of sentence or good time credit earned or eligible to be earned on time served pursuant to present law (C.Cr.P. Art. 880).

Proposed law provides that any diminution of sentence or good time earned under proposed law shall be subject to forfeiture as provided in present law (R.S. 15:571.4).

Proposed law provides that any offender released because of diminution of sentence earned pursuant to proposed law shall be released subject to the provisions of present law (R.S. 15:571.5). Further provides that the remainder of the original full term of sentence shall be served as if on unsupervised parole for any offender released pursuant to proposed law unless his parole is revoked as provided in present law (R.S. 15:571.5(C)).

Proposed law provides that the secretary of the DPS&C shall have sole power and authority to determine when good time has been earned and when diminution of sentence may be allowed in accordance with the provisions of proposed law.

Proposed law provides that the secretary of the DPS&C shall promulgate rules and regulations to govern the adoption of the provisions of proposed law as it relates to the earning of diminution or sentence, the method and specifics for earning good time, and further defining the terms utilized in proposed law. Further provides that the rules shall be adopted in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act.

Present law (R.S. 15:571.5(C)) provides that, relative to a person's release on parole because of diminution of sentence, if such person's parole is revoked by the parole committee for violation of the terms of parole, the person shall be recommitted to the DPS&C for the remainder of the original full term, subject to credit for time served for good behavior while on parole.

Proposed law amends present law to provide that a person who is recommitted to DPS&C after revocation of parole earned for diminution of sentence is not subject to credit for time served for good behavior while on parole.

Present law (R.S. 15:571.3(C)) provides that diminution of sentence shall not be allowed for an inmate in the custody of the DPS&C if any of the following apply:

- (1) The inmate has been sentenced as an habitual offender under the Habitual Offender Law as set forth in present law (R.S. 15:529.1).
- (2) The trial court, in its discretion, prohibits the earning of such diminution of sentence for any person convicted of a violation of present law (R.S. 14:40.2).

Proposed law repeals present law.

Present law (R.S. 15:571.3(D)) provides that diminution of sentence shall not be allowed for any of the following:

- (1) An offender in a parish prison or in the custody of the DPS&C if the instant offense is a second offense crime of violence as defined by present law (R.S. 14:2(B)).
- (2) An offender in a parish prison or in the custody of the DPS&C if the instant offense is a sex offense as defined by present law (R.S. 15:541).

Proposed law repeals present law.

Present law (R.S. 15:574.6.1) provides relative to the availability of "earned compliance credits" that an offender may be able to earn through good behavior while on parole.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Present law (C.Cr.P. Art. 895.6) provides relative to the availability of "earned compliance credits" that an offender may be able to earn through good behavior while on probation.

Proposed law repeals present law.

(Amends R.S. 15:571.5(C); Adds R.S. 15:571.3(G) and 571.3.1; Repeals R.S. 15:571.3(C) and (D) and 574.6.1 and C.Cr.P. Art. 895.6)

Summary of Amendments Adopted by House

The Committee Amendments Proposed by House Committee on Administration of Criminal Justice to the original bill:

1. Provide that a person sentenced as a habitual offender under the Habitual Offender Law as set forth in present law shall not be eligible to receive diminution of sentence for good behavior up to a maximum amount of 15% of the particular sentence imposed.
