HB 487 Original

2024 Regular Session

Newell

Abstract: Prohibits a business from charging a debit or credit cardholder certain excess card usage fees.

Proposed law provides that a retail business shall not charge a surcharge or credit card processing amount greater than the amount the business pays to process the transaction.

Proposed law provides that a retail business in violation of proposed law shall be liable to the credit or debit cardholder.

Proposed law defines "cardholder" and "surcharge".
