

1 appropriated more than fourteen billion dollars for the ACP; and

2 WHEREAS, Congress assigned the Federal Communications Commission to 3 administer the ACP, the successor program to the Emergency Broadband Benefit, which 4 helped almost nine million households afford internet access during the pandemic; and

5 WHEREAS, under the ACP, eligible households can receive a discount of up to 6 thirty dollars per month for internet services and up to seventy-five dollars per month for 7 households on qualifying tribal lands; and

8 WHEREAS, eligible households may also receive a one-time discount of up to one 9 hundred dollars to purchase a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet from participating 10 providers; and

11 WHEREAS, Louisiana was the first state to receive broadband award approval from 12 the bipartisan Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act and is number one in the nation for 13 ACP enrollment with an estimated forty-six percent of eligible households enrolled; and

14 WHEREAS, currently, there are more than nine hundred thousand eligible 15 households within the state that may qualify for the ACP and four hundred twenty-two 16 thousand two hundred fifty-seven households that have enrolled; and

17 WHEREAS, based on current take rates, more than fourteen billion dollars in funding 18 appropriated for the ACP program could be exhausted in late 2023 or early 2024; and

19 WHEREAS, the ACP has been a critical tool in helping bridge the digital divide that 20 exists between those who have access to modern information and communications 21 technology and those who do not.

22 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature of Louisiana memorializes
23 the Congress of the United States to support continued funding of the ACP so that 24 low-income Louisiana households can continue to receive the support they need to 25 participate in the digital marketplace.

26 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the 27 secretary of the United States Senate and the clerk of the United States House of 28 Representatives and to each member of the Louisiana congressional delegation to the United 29 States Congress.
